The Daily Press.

HONGKONG, DECEMBER 12th, 1905.

SOME three years ago, speaking of the appointment of Admiral ALEXANDER to what was practically the Satrapy of Eastern Siberia—the being free from accountability to the Government of Russia, and answerable only to the Tsar in person—we drew a comparison with the decay of the ancient Persian regime owing in a great measure to the want of efficient control over the distant satrapies; and ventured on the forecast that the long line of empire, stretching as it did from the Baltic to the Japan Sea, was already overweighed at the extremities, and that the new appointment of a practically irresponsible chief over the eastern extremity would in time lead to the fracture of the slender connecting rod between St. Petersburg and Vladivostok. We pointed to the glaring manner in which the military commanders in Central Asia had openly contravened the plainest orders of the responsible Government at home, and had in consequence plunged the Empire in a series of costly and unproductive wars, which had already seriously hampered the financial stability of the State; and owing to the extent of the new territory overrun, as well as to the practical dissolution of the bonds of discipline, were threatening its very existence. Already the action of Admiral ALEXANDER was leading up to still further encroachments, and towards this the conduct of the Tsar himself, then under the influence of the dangerous adventurer BESOMASOFF, was directly leading. The war, even then impending, however successful it might be in its immediate effects, could have but one eventual result; and that was the still further disintegration of an empire whose solidarity was already dangerously affected by the outgrowth of unassimilated accretions on every side.

How this system has affected the well-being of Russia we may judge from some statistics given before the late war by a not unfriendly critic, WOLF VON SCHIEBERAND. Speaking of the advancing impoverishment of the fertile lands in European Russia, he says:—"Three main reasons for it are cited: the lack of all earnings save by agricultural labour; the enforced idleness during one half of the year; and the excessive rate of taxation, taking away from this district in taxes much more than given back by the state in one form or other. This last point is undeniable. In the Central district an annual average of 106.4 roubles is taken from the peasantry in taxes, and only 42.8 millions is returned in improvements. As for the East the taxes were 80 millions, and the returns 59.2 millions. But in the South we find similar figures, namely, 122.6 millions taken out, and only 64.8 millions returned."

How the political landscape assumes an entirely different aspect as seen from the West or the East of the Urals is curiously shown in a recently published book by an Englishman who visited the Altai, partly on business, partly to enjoy the mountain climbing, in the winter of 1903. What WOLF VON SCHIEBERAND, looking from Central Russia, considered one of the potent reasons of the decay of Russia, Mr. TUCKER, the English writer referred to, looked upon as an example of political wisdom. He tells us:—"The impartial reader will perceive that the paternal Russian Government, at whose methods in our insular complacency we are so apt to smile, has already effected much for the peasantry, and will effect more. As a mere matter of fact it has done more for Siberia than our own enlightened Government has done for the sister island, with her glorious agricultural possibilities."

"Russia has wisely selected a practical and beneficial method of education and one admirably suited to the necessities of the case. She is gradually introducing the Siberian peasant to the means of obtaining a better livelihood, and so achieving all and more than our western methods have accomplished in the case, say, of the half-educated, intellectually misdirected products of our Board School system. These subsidised co-operative dairies manufacture an article of very uniform quality, while the quantity fluctuates between 15 and 20 cwt. per week, representing the amount of cream supplied by from five to ten skimming stations." We do not belong to that extreme wing of the free-trade fallacies who would scent a crime in thus fostering an infant industry; and the picture drawn is a very pretty and instructive one. It, however, has a reverse: WOLF VON SCHIEBERAND shall be our guide again. Describing the condition of the peasantry in Central Russia he draws a fearful picture. Encouraged by the general management of the liquor monopoly in the hands of his Government, almost the whole of the miserable earnings he can call his own after paying his taxes are spent on vodka. "To get an idea of this it is but necessary to remark that the cost per head to the peasant for the liquor that he consumes means an annual outlay of three roubles sixty-five kopeks, and that the Government takes of this sum, in the form of taxes, two roubles twenty-five kopeks. Therefore while the peasant spends over one-tenth of the total earnings of himself and family on liquor, the Government makes him pay for it about 130 per cent. more than it costs. Novikoff's report, to which repeated reference has been made, describes graphically the utter desolation and misery of the average peasant's family. Reading his pages it seems, indeed, a miracle how one hundred millions of human beings, living under a form of Christianity, and a Government which prides itself on the term "paternal" can have patiently borne for so many years such frightful conditions without a murmur. In the 'Black-earth belt' mortality has increased at a frightful rate, and the population figure remains stationary." "It is not astonishing that the Russian peasantry in the 'Black earth band' of late are emigrating both to Siberia and to the border provinces. By tens of thousands they annually leave their villages to settle on virgin land in Western Siberia; and yet the provinces they leave were endowed by nature with extremely fertile soil, and the density of population, even in these central provinces, is to-day less than half that of Germany. But the peasant in the Centre is steadily degenerating. The annual recruiting for the army shows that plainly. The number of men found unfit for military service is large, and constantly increasing. High in deficient width of chest and in lesser height he forms a striking contrast with the Russian living under more propitious conditions."

The reason of this is not far to seek, and coincides with the recent mania for territorial expansion, but territorial expansion, even by Russia, costs money, and the money has to be raised by foreign loans. So long as the advance goes on, the officials in the East care little for the burdens of the country, and the feeble wretchedness of the Russian living under more propitious conditions."

A message received from Honolulu early this morning (Japan Advertiser November 28) says that the Russian converted cruiser Lena, which left San Francisco on October 31 direct for Vladivostok, had put into Honolulu with half its crew in irons because of an attempted mutiny on board shortly after leaving San Francisco. According to the report of the captain, who came ashore to get aid of Honolulu authorities immediately upon anchoring, his men imbibed their spirit of disloyalty from Russian Socialists in San Francisco during the vessel's internment at that port. Hardly had the Lena cleared for Vladivostok when evidence of mutiny appeared. Without waiting for open revolt the captain clapped all suspected mutineers in irons and kept the rest of the crew subdued by a display of force.

The following note from the Nanfangshao shows the stiff-necked attitude of China:—Out of consideration of the great sacrifices on the part of Japan in the late war, the Chinese Government has consented to the transference of the lease of the Liaotung Peninsula, but Prince Ching, and his colleagues refuse the demand of Japan to extend the Chinese Eastern Railway. With regard to the Fushan coal mines, since they are Japan's spoils of war, the Chinese decide to allow her to retain them. Baron Komura promises to evacuate Manchuria gradually, but says the question of the railway guards must be considered later. The Japanese plenipotentiaries stand firm in their demand for permission to establish telegraphs and post-offices in Manchuria, their plea being that China permits the existence of such institutions within her boundaries anyway.

A revised pattern of postal order which has been devised with a view to greater convenience and with the object of affording increased security against fraud is to be issued at an early date in England, and they will presumably in due course be obtainable in Hongkong. These new orders will be for every sixpence from 6d. to 20s. and also for 21s. Spaces will be provided in which postage stamps used to make up broken amounts (not exceeding 5d.) must be affixed; and no credit will be allowed for stamps affixed on other parts of the order. These spaces will be three in number; and it will be arranged for the counter clerks selling postal orders to keep a stock of the requisite stamps. The orders will be printed on paper having a somewhat better writing surface, and orders of 40s. and upwards will be printed in red instead of blue.

FRENCH CONVENT BAZAAR.
The annual bazaar and sale of work in connection with the French Convent opened at that institution yesterday, when the many beautiful specimens of skillful needlework by the children of the convent were exhibited. These comprised embroidery, cushions and various other knickknacks attractive to womankind. Besides, there were numerous Japanese articles and a collection of French dolls. The modest price attached to each article ought to warrant the success of so deserving an object. H. E. the Governor has promised to visit the bazaar, and will be in attendance this afternoon.

SHIPPING COMPANIES AND ARMY TRANSPORT.
The Japan Daily Mail says:—"In the Kokuyin Shinbun we find some interesting facts as to the transport service during the war. It appears that the number of steamers over 1,000 tons employed habitually by the Military Authorities was 118, with an aggregate tonnage of 320,000 tons; and in times of special stress the number rose to 158 with a tonnage of 420,000. As to the Navy, it employed regularly 61 vessels, displacing 120,000 tons, and at times 76 vessels displacing 220,000 tons. Thus the total figures are 179 steamers with a displacement of 440,000 tons in ordinary times, 234 steamers displacing 620,000 tons in time of emergency. Steamers of 100 tons and over constituted 80 per cent of the transport fleet. The Navy took the best ships, many of them being employed as auxiliary cruisers. Moreover, experience showed that vessels most suitable for army transport best purposes are not large and fast passenger steamers, but on the contrary, small vessels, with great beam, several decks, numerous hatches and powerful winches. In fact old-fashioned ships from 25 to 30 years of age proved eminently serviceable. Our contemporary thinks that these facts should be kept carefully in view, and that, when subsidies are granted heretofore to shipping companies, they should be required to have their steamers built with a view to the requirements of military transport."

Hongkong imported from America, in 1905, cotton cloths value $52,968 (gold) mineral oil value $657,416, and wheat flour value $1,570,436. The respective figures in 1904 were, $24,157, $1,482,339 and $2,917,811.

A self-lubricating bunk for the prevention of sea-sickness, which has been experimented with for some time past on the Dover-Calais service, has been found so successful that it is proposed to install it on all the steamers.

The Irish drama, "The Shaughraun," again attracted many playgoers to St. Patrick's Club last evening, and judging by their reception of the play the audience had nothing but encomiums to pass on the V. A. D. C.

At Kowloon yesterday afternoon, eight lots of Crown land were offered for sale by public auction by Mr. L. C. Ross, Government Surveyor. Although a large number of Chinese (probably intending purchasers) were present, no bids were offered, the general opinion being that prices were too high.

A message received from Honolulu early this morning (Japan Advertiser November 28) says that the Russian converted cruiser Lena, which left San Francisco on October 31 direct for Vladivostok, had put into Honolulu with half its crew in irons because of an attempted mutiny on board shortly after leaving San Francisco. According to the report of the captain, who came ashore to get aid of Honolulu authorities immediately upon anchoring, his men imbibed their spirit of disloyalty from Russian Socialists in San Francisco during the vessel's internment at that port. Hardly had the Lena cleared for Vladivostok when evidence of mutiny appeared. Without waiting for open revolt the captain clapped all suspected mutineers in irons and kept the rest of the crew subdued by a display of force.

The following note from the Nanfangshao shows the stiff-necked attitude of China:—Out of consideration of the great sacrifices on the part of Japan in the late war, the Chinese Government has consented to the transference of the lease of the Liaotung Peninsula, but Prince Ching, and his colleagues refuse the demand of Japan to extend the Chinese Eastern Railway. With regard to the Fushan coal mines, since they are Japan's spoils of war, the Chinese decide to allow her to retain them. Baron Komura promises to evacuate Manchuria gradually, but says the question of the railway guards must be considered later. The Japanese plenipotentiaries stand firm in their demand for permission to establish telegraphs and post-offices in Manchuria, their plea being that China permits the existence of such institutions within her boundaries anyway.

A revised pattern of postal order which has been devised with a view to greater convenience and with the object of affording increased security against fraud is to be issued at an early date in England, and they will presumably in due course be obtainable in Hongkong. These new orders will be for every sixpence from 6d. to 20s. and also for 21s. Spaces will be provided in which postage stamps used to make up broken amounts (not exceeding 5d.) must be affixed; and no credit will be allowed for stamps affixed on other parts of the order. These spaces will be three in number; and it will be arranged for the counter clerks selling postal orders to keep a stock of the requisite stamps. The orders will be printed on paper having a somewhat better writing surface, and orders of 40s. and upwards will be printed in red instead of blue.

THE GRIFFINS.

As they were landed from the s.s. Choy Sang on Saturday, the thirteen new griffins imported for next year's races had not the appearance of being able to provide much sport for a Hongkong gathering. They were a straggling looking mob, but a number of them had the fiery eyes which bespeak determination. They had all passed the time test at Shanghai however, therefore they must be up to the usual standard; and within a month's time, says Mr. Gegg, they will be unrecognisable.

The drawing at the Horse Repository resulted as follows:—

No. 1 (grey), Mr. Babington; No. 2 (iron grey), Sir Paul Chater; No. 3 (grey), Mr. G. C. Moxon; No. 4 (chestnut), H.E. Sir Matthew Nathan; No. 5 (grey), Mr. Bolles; No. 6 (grey), Mr. Jupp; No. 7 (chestnut), Mr. Haymer; No. 8 (dan), Mr. Crickshank; No. 9 (grey), Mr. Craig; No. 10 (bay), Capt. Leslie; No. 11 (grey), Mr. C. W. Dickson; No. 12 (black), Mr. A. Dorabjee; No. 13 (black), Mr. Macdonald.

The ponies will be started training this week, and will be in readiness should the rumoured "Sky" meeting come off during the stay here of Prince Arthur of Connaught and suit. In Mr. Gegg's opinion Mr. Jupp's grey is the flower of the flock.

It is still feared that there will be some difficulty in obtaining the requisite number of griffins; but some seven more have passed the time test, and will be en route for Hongkong shortly. With the exception of H.E. the Governor's and Captain Arbutnot Leslie's ponies, the remainder have been left at the horse repository. The two in question are being looked after in his Excellency's stables.

Latest advices from Corea say that the discontent with the Japanese overlordship is not of an effective nature.

SUPREME COURT.

Monday, 11th December.

IN SUMMARY JURISDICTION.

BEFORE MR. A. G. WISE (PUNISHMENT JUDGE).

A QUESTION OF COSTS.

In the case in which the Club Lusitano sued J. M. Xavier to recover the sum of $30, the summons had been previously withdrawn, but his Lordship had to decide as to costs.

Mr. E. J. Grist (of Messrs. Wilkinson and Grist) appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. P. W. Goldring (of Messrs. Bratton, Hett and Goldring) represented the defendant.

His Lordship—Well, Mr. Goldring, haven't you settled up this serious question of costs?

Mr. Goldring—No, my Lord, we have not had much opportunity owing to the holiday. The question is whether they should pay our costs, the money having been paid by a third party without the knowledge of the defendant.

His Lordship—What is the trouble behind this?

Mr. Grist—So far as I can see this is simply an action brought for the amount of refreshments supplied, and the subscription due by a member to the Club. When cheques are signed by a man he ought to meet them. Altogether, there was an amount of $42 owing, and that has been paid. So far as I am concerned, the matter is at an end. With regard to costs, I am prepared to waive them.

His Lordship (to Mr. Goldring)—I cannot do anything for you now.

Mr. Goldring—Won't my client be entitled to his costs?

His Lordship—Oh, no. I won't give either of you costs. Drop the whole thing; it seems to me that it is a petty affair. I don't know whether any ill-feeling or bad blood exists between the parties, but there must be some trouble.

Mr. Grist—Even if there is, we should keep it out of this case.

His Lordship—Very well. By consent the case is withdrawn. I think that is best, as I am certain there is something behind it, and you would probably be washing dirty linen before you had done.

A CROSS-ACTION.

The case was continued in which Ching Kwai Wan, trader, claimed from Leung Wai Tung, alias Chiu Chin Tong, the sum of $9, being balance due on account of medicine pills sold and delivered.

In the cross-action the previous defendant claimed from the plaintiff the sum of $50, money lent.

Mr. F. X. d'Almada e Castro represented the plaintiff in the first action and the defendant in the second, while Mr. R. A. Harding appeared for the defendant in the first and the plaintiff in the second.

Mr. d'Almada closed his case on the previous day.

In opening his case, Mr. Harding said there were two points to consider. The first was, whether there was, previous to July, a transaction between the two parties leaving a balance due for which the document he was using on was given. Secondly whether the defendant supplied the pills referred to and whether the document the plaintiff put in was in payment on account of pills. The plaintiff, a merchant carrying on business in Canton, was a partner in the Nam Leung Hing and sole proprietor of the Tong Kee with a capital of $20,000. He dealt in general merchandise, and had been in the habit of sending goods to Hongkong for sale.

He was also the custodian of the funds of his native village, and in January of this year a farmer from that village told him it was necessary to arm against robbers and asked him to arrange for the supply of rifles. As he had no means of obtaining these he went to see a brother-in-law of the defendant's, Ho Kin San, who carried on business in Canton. He informed him that the defendant carried on business in Hongkong, and said that he could arrange with him for the supply of the rifles. Accordingly Ho Kin San, the farmer and the plaintiff visited Hongkong about the end of the year and went to see the defendant at the office of the Fuk Sing. The defendant said he could supply the rifles, but would require a deposit of $200. On the 26th January he paid the deposit and returned to Canton. In March 1905 the rifles had not been delivered, so he returned to Hongkong to see the defendant, who then said he could not deliver them. He applied for the return of the $200 deposit, but the defendant stated that he had only retained $100, and that his brother-in-law had the other $100. The plaintiff was advised to obtain the $100 in the possession of Ho Kin San, and then return and the defendant would hand over the other $100. He obtained the money from Ho, and on again applying to the defendant received $50, leaving a balance due of $50. Subsequently the plaintiff again visited Hongkong and went to the defendant's shop. There he was threatened with arrest for theft and brought this action.

His Lordship—Who is the rebel?

Mr. d'Almada—My friend's client.

His Lordship—Someone is, I can see.

Continuing, Mr. Harding said his client did not deal in pills. He had never ordered those in question, and never had them.

The case was adjourned.

A Tokyo telegram to the N. C. Daily News dated Dec. 6 says—The Crown Prince will leave Yokohama on Friday on board the cruiser Yamato, which will be accompanied by the cruiser Kasagi, to attend the launch of the Yokohama, the first armoured, and the largest, cruiser ever built in Japan. The launch takes place on the 12th inst. at Kure. Admirals Yamamoto and Togo are also attending.

POLICE COURT.

Monday, 11th December.

BEFORE MR. F. A. HAZELAND (FIRST POLICE MAGISTRATE).

RITIOUS RUSSIANS.

Four Russian bluejackets were charged with disorderly conduct at Blako Pier, on Sunday. They were very drunk, smashed the risings in which they had ridden, chased the Chinese, throw oranges about the street and created something like pandemonium for some time. When the police arrived the sailors gave such a determined resistance that assistance had to be obtained before they could be taken into custody. Two Europeans, two Indians, an American marine and a hukong had to lead a hand in taking them to the lock-up. The first man, Runski Steven, was fined $5 and ordered to pay $1.40 compensation, the others being fined $5.

LARCENY FROM THE GAOL.

A most impudent theft was exposed by Mr. Craig, superintendent at Victoria Gaol. Ko Tai, had been engaged by a house coddle there to act as deputy while the latter went on a holiday. On Sunday Ko Tai stole jewellery and other articles from the premises to the value of $100, but was detected by the house coddle as he was hearing the steamer for Canton. He was arrested and found wearing one of the stolen rings, while other articles were recovered from a pawnshop. He was sentenced to six months' hard labour and six hours in the stocks.

RETURNING FROM BANISHMENT.

Ng Yau for returning from banishment was sentenced to one year's imprisonment and six hours in the stocks.

BOARDING HOUSE RUNNERS.

The Water Police are still waging a vigorous warfare against boarding house runners. Two more natives being summoned for making fast to the Pak Tai and impeding that vessel's progress. They were each fined $50.

NOISY BLUEJACKETS.

Two bluejackets named Dowling and Regan were summoned for being drunk and disorderly. The former was not only noisy in a brothel in Ship Street, but damaged the property and assaulted the police. For this he had to pay a fine of $10 and $4 compensation. Regan was also disorderly and damaged property in a brothel in Ship Street, and assaulted a woman. He was fined $10 and ordered to pay $1.40 compensation.

SEEKING ESCAPE FROM TROUBLE.

A native charged by Inspector McDonald with being in unlawful possession of four pieces of silver, when asked if he had jumped into the harbour that morning, smilingly acknowledged that he had. He explained his conduct by having lost gold belonging to his master in Canton. There was fighting and trouble everywhere and he jumped into the harbour to escape it. His intention was to commit suicide but a boatwoman rescued him. He was remanded for a week to be medically examined.

THIEF FROM A STEAMER.

Leung Fung an unemployed coolie was found on board the Po Wai early on Sunday morning with a bundle of clothing stolen from one of the passengers. He made off, running on board another steamer lying alongside Canton wharf whither he was pursued and arrested. Sentenced to three weeks' hard labour and six hours in the stocks.

A DRUNKEN SEAMAN.

William Paterson, an unemployed seaman, was convicted of being drunk and disorderly on Saturday and was fined $5.

SELLING HIS DAUGHTER.

Leung Shun, charged with kidnapping a girl, told the magistrate that she was his own daughter. Inspector Collett said defendant had, under section 32 of the Girls' and Women's Protection Ordinances, given up lawful care and charge of his daughter for a money consideration. The magistrate fixed the hearing of the charge for Thursday.

ALLEGED ARSON.

A charge of arson was preferred against Kwok Fat and Li Kat Hin, who were accused of having wilfully set fire to the premises occupied by them at 42 Des Vaux Road West on November 22nd.

Mr. Hursthouse, from the Crown Solicitor's Office, prosecuted on behalf of the Meiji Insurance Co. and Prussian National Insurance Co., while Mr. O. D. Thomson appeared for both defendants.

Mr. Hursthouse, in opening, said the two defendants were charged with wilfully and maliciously setting fire to 42 Des Vaux Road with intent to injure and defraud the Insurance Companies. The circumstances were that there was a firm called the Wing Fook Tai which had an office at 246 Des Vaux Road, and they had also a shop with a small godown at 42 Des Vaux Road. The principal office was at the former address and the goods, such as they were, were stored at the latter. On the night of the 22nd November, near mid-night, the second defendant Li Kat Hin, was seen by a police constable walking up and down opposite the scene of the fire. This was just a few minutes before the fire. The constable took notice of the man, but as he appeared to be respectfully dressed, nothing was said or done. The constable had moved away from the place a little distance when there was an alarm of fire. Later, when the second defendant was brought into the Police Station the constable recognised him as the man he had seen walking in front of the burned premises.

The first defendant was seen running out of the burning building when the alarm of fire was given. The Fire Brigade were quickly in attendance and a Chinese detective from No. 7 Police Station reached the spot in time to see the first defendant coming out of the burning building. He immediately gave chase and caught him after running some distance. When arrested the godown book was found in his possession. Some time afterwards this detective with other constables went to the premises at 246 Des Vaux Road, where they found the second defendant and obtained a number of books connected with the shop, showing, among other things, the capital of the business. The original capital was $80,000 but the books showed that a considerable portion of that had been repaid or withdrawn by the partners within a month or so preceding the fire. The books also showed that there must have been a considerable loss within a month or two before the fire. The godown book showed certain goods which ought to have been in the godown. He proposed to call evidence to the effect that, broadly speaking, nothing like that quantity of goods was in the godown at the time of the fire. Now, as to the fire itself, when the Fire Brigade arrived, they found that there were several distinct fires burning. He did not know that any one witness could swear absolutely to the whole lot, but taking the evidence collectively, his Worship would be able to see that it must have been set alight in at least five different places. The reason why they made that suggestion would be apparent when his Worship looked at the plan. At one side of the shop, on the right hand side, a weighing machine was seen alight when one witness went there. A few feet further on there was a table alight, and beyond that was a bedstead burning, while on the other side was the staircase on fire. Between all these was room for a person to pass but otherwise there was nothing to connect those various small fires. Further back they found another fire, while, on a ladder being procured, a separate conflagration was discovered. From this were seen drops of fire, evidently oil or some other liquid, falling to the floor. As to the insurance, the premises were insured in the two companies mentioned, in one for $13,000 and in the other for $12,000.

Formal evidence having been given by an assistant engineer in the Public Works Department that the plan submitted was accurate, and by the representatives of the two insurance companies, who produced the policies,

Mr. L. Lammett, valuer and appraiser, spoke, to visiting the premises at 42 Des Vaux Road on 2nd December at the request of the representatives of the Meiji Insurance Company, and expressed the opinion that the goods stored there prior to the fire could not have exceeded $1,000 worth.

The hearing was adjourned.

BEFORE MR. C. D. McLEOD (ACTING SECOND POLICE MAGISTRATE).

THE LAICHIKO MURDER.

The charge against three Indians, Mawar Kan, Rakh Deen and Chann Ullah of murdering a fellow countryman, who had been employed as a watchman, and whose body was found floating in a box at Laichikok, was resumed. Mr. Morrell conducted the case for the prosecution and Mr. O. D. Thomson appeared for the defence.

A Chinese woman stated that she saw the box in question taken from the wharf. The case was adjourned till to-day.

"THE WILD MAN FROM SINGAPORE."

A Straits Times correspondent writing from England has matter of interest for those who have been long exiled. He says:—The charm and holy quiet of the average English village after the war. The labourer gets to his work at dawn and returns at dusk, the grey-haired parson drones away in the warm-eaten pulpit just the same, the school-children lob up and down with a "Good-day Sir," the Squire visits his tenantry and looks very wise when discussing that portentous question with farmer Hodge as to the reduction of rent. And so it goes on! No change whatever. Not even a new house within the last ten years. The village never spreads, it remains where it is and generations succeed each other doing exactly the same thing, quite content that the Squire and the parson should hold the reins of Government.

A wild man from Singapore entering a village of some two hundred people is an event for much talk. They say he is tall, he is of sight and every action is observed with curiosity. My friend as one who lived along-side the tiger says, "To live up to the occasion I had to tell of the hair-breath-escape I had in the streets of Singapore and had I had a set of lantern slides and appeared in the Parish Hall you people out there might well have envied me. Nobody, of course, knew where Singapore is, it is quite enough to know that it was in India and infested with tigers that walked into your bed room at night, muzzled and ate the snacker frequently jumped out when you turned the bedclothes down. I hope the English peasantry will never change, they are one of the country's charms.

In travelling on the various railway lines one notices the changes—luxurious changes that have taken place within the last decade. On the G. W. R. for example the third class passenger is provided with a corridor car, decorated with charming views of places on the line, a regular for decreasing or increasing the temperature at will is just over his head, the attendant steps in with a smile and says "Will you want luncheon, sir." Lavatories are well fitted up and the cushions have spring seats. It is quite fashionable to travel third. You will meet Bishops, judges, editors, and even millionaires in the third class so that it is a puzzle to know who travels in the first class. In France they tell you that it is only fools who go first, parce qu'ils ne savent pas. In any case the railway authorities have done well in making the third class so comfortable as it attracts thousands who would have to stay at home that cannot afford first-class on long journeys. All the lines have followed this policy and seem to be outwitting each other in the matter of comfort for the travelling public at the cheapest rate.

The three cruisers which arrived in port during the week and from Vladivostok, the Rosica, Gromoboy and the Bogatyir formed part of the Vladivostok squadron. Admiral Tseser is in command. He visited the Governor and the General Officer Commanding yesterday and the calls will be returned by their Excellencies to-morrow. The vessels leave on the 19th inst. homeward bound.

ONE DESIGN.

Min, Benito, and Colleen got away to a very level start, but Kathleen was nearly half a minute late in crossing the line. On the reach to Trocas Rock Buoy, Min did best and was nearly three minutes ahead of Kathleen in rounding the order being Min, Colleen, Benito, and Kathleen. On the run to the mark boat off Green Island, this order was maintained, Kathleen, however, closing on Benito. On the beat back, Min still kept her lead. Colleen going too far into Stoncutters, dropped right back, and was passed by Benito and Kathleen, these two rounding close together. On the run to the Fairway Buoy, Kathleen passed Benito and still further reduced Min's lead. The water was smoother during the return beat, and Kathleen went very well, and made the mark boat in one long reach from Stoncutters, Min, tacking twice, beat her by a few seconds. Times—

STORM SIGNALS IN INDIA CHINA.

On and after the 1st January, 1906, a New Code of Storm Signals will come into force at the Semaphore Stations on the coast of French Indo China.

It is in all respects the same as the new Code which will on the same date be put into operation on the China Coast at the Signal Stations of the Chinese Imperial Customs, at Hongkong, Shanghai and Tsingtau, and which is already being used at Weihaiwei.

At the Semaphore stations on the coast of French Indo China, however, Series 2 has been supplemented with one, and Series 6 with eleven new phrases of local interest.

At these Stations, the weather signals will by day be distinguished by a Red Flag with a White Star flown from the mast head, and at night by a Red Light exhibited from the same place.

The following are the twelve phrases added to the Siauwei Code:

- 261. Vigh to Touron. 633 Centre of Annam.
- 621 N.E. of Tongking. 631 S.W. of Annam.
- 631 N. of Tongking. 632 E. of Annam.
- 632 N.W. of Tongking. 633 E. of Cochinchina.
- 641 N. of Annam. 634 N. of Cochinchina.
- 642 N.W. of Annam. 561 W. of Cochinchina.

The semaphores are at: Haiphong, Touron, Padaran and Cape S. James.

THE GERMAN SHIPPING COMPANIES.

The Straits Times of November 28 says:—Much interest has been excited in local shipping circles to-day by the announcement that a rupture had occurred between the North German Lloyd S. S. Co. of Bremen and the Hamburg American Line of Hamburg. It is known that the trouble is in connection with the tremendous competition between the two lines for the Atlantic passenger trade, which rivalry has been recently accentuated by the Hamburg Line's starting the Ritz steamer and other superb attractions on that new mammoth floating palace, the America, which was described in these columns a few days ago. Whatever the precise nature of the split may be, it is so far, has no bearing upon the relations of the two respective companies in this part of the world, and Messrs. Behn Meyer, the agents of both as concerns the Straits, have received no intimation of any trouble whatever, other than that appears in our special Berlin despatch. The statement in the latter that the Kaiser desires to maintain the prestige of Bremen as a rising port is, in the premises, rather obscure. The headquarters of the North German Lloyd Line are at Bremen, and those of the Hamburg-American Line are at Hamburg. For already past the two companies have been working in unison, and within the past few years such boats as the Il. A. liner Kinshasa (now the N. D. L. liner Princess Alice) was on the East Asia mail run, under the H. A. L. flag. She then ran "turn-about" with the N. D. L. boats on a joint schedule. About a year ago, the Hamburg-American line handed over its fast passenger boats to the North German Co. and took some of the Hamburg trade, and the arrangement was that the N. D. L. look over all the passenger trade, and the heavy freight business. The latter company receives no Government subsidy whatever, but in consideration of running fast mail lines to Australia and Eastern Asia, the German Lloyd receives a mail subsidy of about £300,000 per annum. Neither line receives any subsidy at all on their Atlantic or other runs.

A boiler explosion occurred on the Nord-deutscher Lloyd's steamer Wongkai in the harbour yesterday afternoon, as the result of which three men were taken to the Government Civil Hospital seriously injured. One of the men, second engineer Christensen, has since died from the scalds received, while the third engineer, Mr. O. Valger, and a Chinese fireman are in a precarious condition.

THE ACME OF HORROR.

FATE OF ODESSA JEWS.

The Pail Mail Gazette of Nov. 6 said:—

Everything else among the news from Russia that has accumulated since Saturday is eclipsed by the Odessa abominations. We read of the St. Bartholomew and of the deeds of Alva's soldiers with the comfortable feeling that such things do not happen under Christian Government nowadays; they are left to the Unspeakeable Turk. But the worst "excesses" of the Bash-Bazook or Kurd are not more horrible than the appalling outrages of the hoodlums mob at Odessa, at which every shudder of this morning's papers will have shuddered with a rush of indignation against the open and flagrant police complicity in these atrocities against the Jews. The horrors of Odessa are only the climax of a tale of carnage that involves almost the whole of European Russia; and in which official Russia is everywhere implicated. If reaction is to perish, it will evidently die like a rabid tiger. Happily, there are signs even more hopeful than the sheer exhaustion of savagery which is commonly supposed. The St. Petersburg reformers have wisely abstained from giving Trepoft's men any "provocation" by a demonstration at the funeral of victims; and in some high quarters wisdom is peeping out. M. Polidnocostoff's successor's rebuke of the Metropolitan of Moscow, who had been joining the police in inciting to attacks on the reformers, is a salutary omen; and a wholesale dismissal of reactionary Governors is hinted at. May it include General Trepoft!

The news referred to read:

Terrible reports of the massacres in Odessa on Friday night have been telegraphed by Reuters representative in the town. Bands of ruffians accompanied by policemen invaded all the Jewish houses and slaughtered the occupants. Men and women were felled and decapitated with axes. Children were torn limb from limb, and their brains dashed out against the walls. The streets were littered with the corpses which were hurled out of the windows. The houses of the murdered Jews were then systematically destroyed, and the Jewish population of the district was wiped out.

It is impossible to estimate the number of those killed in the rioting, but the total must be enormous. In the Jewish hospital on Saturday morning 375 wounded, most of the merrily, were under treatment, in the Municipal Hospital 1,146 and at the different ambulance stations 62. The number of oligans killed is roughly 120. On Friday four waggon loads full of killed, each containing 30 corpses, were driven to the cemeteries, and 180 bodies were removed on Saturday. A citizens' committee has been organized to relieve the distress.

Every Jewish bakery has been destroyed, and 60 families have been rendered homeless. Some of the ruffians put their victims to death by hammering nails into their heads. Eyes were gouged out, ears cut off, and tongues were wrenched out with pinners. Numbers of women were disembowelled. The aged and sick, who were found hidden in the cellars, were soaked in petroleum and burned alive in their homes. Police and soldiers marched at the head of the bands, crying out, "The Jews have killed our Emperor and attacked the cathedral. They've murdered the Christians. Cut them all to pieces!" and leading the mob to the houses signalled out for destruction. The inhabitants of many houses purchased their liberty from the mob by paying the ceding policeman from 50 to 300 roubles (£5 to £3). The police would not allow any assistance to be given to the wounded, actually firing upon the Red Cross workers.

At an early hour yesterday morning the work of plunder was still being carried on in the more remote suburbs.

CHINESE LEGISLATIVE REFORMS.

A Peking telegram to the N. C. Daily News on Dec. 3rd, says—In the progress of the revision of the Laws of China, the Press Law has been drafted, and is now under consideration by the provincial officials, on receipt of whose report it will be submitted to the Throne for sanction.

The Laws relating to the issue of public loans, and the Copyright Laws will soon be completed.

The Commercial Code is now being perused by the French and German authorities, and the Criminal Code is also nearly complete.

WEATHER REPORT.

The Hongkong Observatory yesterday issued the following report—

On the 11th at 4:50 a.m. the barometer has fallen over W. Japan, and the Loosheos and risen over China particularly in the North. The depression which was in the Yangtze Valley yesterday has moved Eastwards and reached S.W. Japan.

An area of high pressure appears to be situated to the North of the Yangtze.

Very strong monsoon is expected to set in again over the whole of the China coast by to-morrow, probably of gale force in the Formosa Channel, and the N. part of the China Sea.

Forecast:—N. winds, freshening to strong breezes; cloudy, probably some rain, becoming cooler.

MARVELLOUS CURE OF SORE EYES

Baby Treated at Two Hospitals Over a Year—Eyes Grew Worse—Doctor Said They Might Be Bad for Years.

ONE BOX OF CUTICURA MAKES COMPLETE CURE

"When my little girl was a few months old, her eyes began to get bad; thinking it was from her teeth, I lived in hopes of them getting better, but as they did not improve I decided to get medical advice. I took her to the Hospital several times, and subsequently to the Children's Hospital at —, to which institution I took her for twelve months. The doctors were most kind and attentive, and did all they could for her, but her eyes seemed to be growing worse. One doctor told me they might be bad for years. I was very miserable at such a prospect. I was one day stopped in the street by a Mrs. Todd who told me that Cuticura Ointment had cured her boy, and advised me to try it. I commenced using it that very night. The cure has been marvellous. The eyes soon commenced to get strong, and they are now as healthy as if there had never been anything the matter with them. The cure was completed with less than one box of Cuticura Ointment. You are at liberty to make what use you like of this letter, and I trust it may be of means of others being cured as my little girl has been.—Mrs. F. Phillips, Grafton St., Waverly, Sydney, N. S. W." THE COSMOPOLITAN.
A MONTHLY ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"...everyone is bound to appreciate the departure from the stereotyped canons which this magazine promises. Its pages are bright without being shocking. Its articles are crisp, original, and well-written. Its illustrations are artistic and enhance the value of the journal."
—Hongkong Daily Press, 27th October, 1905.

"The praise which we gave to the first number of the COSMOPOLITAN may be honestly repeated in reference to the second number. There is something very attractive in the unity which pervades the magazine through its being a one-man affair, and that one man, being such an acute student of passing events and wielding such a vigorous pen."
—N. C. Daily News, 30th October, 1905.

"The many articles are well and brightly written. There should be little doubt of success."
—Singapore Times, 20th September, 1905.

"...Though the language of the staff is not English, the English of THE COSMOPOLITAN is idiomatic and grammatically is irreproachable."
—China Gazette, 22nd September, 1905.

"Among these are 'The Art of Eating,' a witty and observant discourse on modern table manners. It is certainly a heterogeneous collection of wit and wisdom, but it is the ideal of a Far Eastern magazine, for it will solve the over-spirited or brighten the gloomy, just as the spirit moves the reader. Taken all together THE COSMOPOLITAN is brightly written, up-to-date, and entirely interesting."
—Hongkong Telegraph, 29th September, 1905.

"...Le champ d'observation de notre nouveau confrère est si vaste qu'il nous ennuie que le 'cosmopolite' ne lui manquera pas, et nous lui souhaitons tout le succès désirable."
—L'Echo de Chine, 20th September, 1905.

"...quite a new feature in Far Eastern journals. The quality of the letterpress is well worth the handsome setting. We have found a good deal of sound common sense in articles as well as no little fun and humour. Matters calculated to interest not only the foreigner in Shanghai and Chinese Treaty ports, but in Japan."
—Japan Chronicle, 12th October, 1905.

"The pictures are excellent. One wonders how it is to be produced month after month."
—Japan Daily Mail, 13th October, 1905.

In a few months the magazine will be written for subscribers only, and you will not be able to buy single copies.
The Christmas number will contain about 150 pages with nearly 100 illustrations and will cost $2.00 to non-subscribers whereas subscribers will get it at the actual price of $1.00.

SUBSCRIPTION.—$6.00 for six months plus 50 cents postage. Subscribers joining now may still get back numbers from September, but as we have only 81 copies left for September and 52 for October it will be necessary to apply at once to—

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN.

Many so-called women's complaints can be traced to disorders of the liver, stomach and bowels. A woman's work is more or less sedentary; she does not get the fresh air, the exercise, or the regular hours of rest that a man does, so that the liver becomes sluggish, the system does not get the rest it needs, and there is not a regular motion of the bowels. Constipation is one of the worst dangers a woman has to fear, and the longer it is neglected, the more deeply rooted it becomes. The bowels are swollen and enlarged, thus displacing members of the female organism, and causing stomach pains, difficulty in breathing, windy spasms, headache, vomiting, a feeling of fullness after meals, bloodlessness, etc. But men who are constipated suffer from these same symptoms, so that it cannot be female trouble. When the constipation is once the distressing complaints will quickly disappear. Doan's Dinner Pills give tone and new vigour to the muscular walls of the colon, and soften the mass of waste matter, so that the bowels act naturally, and discharge the clogging impurities. A box of Doan's Dinner Pills should always be kept in the house, and a dose taken when the bowels have been inactive, or whenever food disagrees, or when there is a feeling of heaviness and discomfort in the region of the stomach. This medicine is purely vegetable, and perfectly harmless for men or women, young and old.

The sufferer from "habitual" constipation should take a regular walk every day, drink plenty of pure water, and breathe deeply, not only while Doan's Dinner Pills are being used, but afterwards, thus no return of the disorder need be feared.

Doan's Dinner Pills are the best medicine for biliousness, indigestion, constipation, for headache, retching, dizziness, distended after eating, poor appetite, yellow eyes, heartburn, wind, and for every liver, stomach and bowel trouble. Doan's Dinner Pills are 1 1/2 a box, or 6 boxes for 5/-. Of all chemists and medicine-dealers, or direct from the proprietors, the Foster-McClellan Co., 8, Wells Street, Oxford Street, London, England, post free on receipt of price.

Have you skin diseases? Eczema? Ringworm? Itching Piles? The first application of Doan's Ointment will relieve you, and the Ointment will be found a lasting cure for every form of Itching Skin Complaint. The price of Doan's Ointment is 2/6 a pot, or 13/6 for 6 pots, and it is sold by all chemists, or may be had direct, post free on receipt of price, from the proprietors, the Foster-McClellan Co., 8, Wells Street, Oxford Street, London, England. 73-20.

THE REGISTRATION OF PARTNERSHIPS.

The Singapore Free Press of Nov. 28 reports: The Chamber of Commerce at Penang held a meeting on Nov. 27 to consider the Registration of Partnerships Bill.

The meeting decided practically unanimously as follows: "That this meeting approves the general principle of registration of partnerships, but is of opinion that certain provisions require considerable amendment, and thanks the Government for introducing it."

A long letter was submitted from the Singapore Chamber urging the Penang body to cooperate against the bill.

Mr. W. H. Shelford, chairman of the Singapore Chamber, when seen this morning by a representative of the Free Press, remarked, in reply to a question concerning the reasons which had prompted the message to Penang, arguing cooperation against the Bill, that a circular would shortly be issued and a meeting called. The former would explain precisely the reasons why the Chamber objects. At any rate (and there can be no harm in stating the fact) only three members are not in opposition to the Bill and two of them do not like it, although they think various amendments could be made to it. Mr. Shelford added that the big mercantile firms had secret information, &c.; but this he characterised as nonsense. The Bill was objected to by them because it would ruin the trade of the port.

The report on the working of the Bankruptcy Ordinance for 1904 was laid on the table of Council recently. The total revenue of the department was $14,461 locally and the expenditure practically the same. It is somewhat surprising to see that no less than $2,792, or nearly one-fifth of the whole expenditure, was paid out over "exchange expenditure," and this despite the fact that a sum of $500.43 was saved under this head. It is however satisfactory to note that, for the second time since its establishment, the department paid its way. The usual table of insolvency in the Colony during the last ten years is appended but the Assignee says: "It is of no more value than in previous years."

In Singapore the question has arisen, whether a bankrupt, who has obtained his discharge with conditions attached, can arrange a composition with his creditors and so obtain annulment of his bankruptcy. The composition actually fell through but has again been proposed. The proper course would appear to be for the Official Assignee, with the consent of the creditors, to sell the unrealized assets to the discharged bankrupt, or anyone else, for such a sum as will with any dividends already declared give the creditors the desired percentage. The case of Re Beer (1901) L.A.B. 628 is against the possibility of annulment, except upon payment in full, after discharge.

Yeo Tian Lye has been made bankrupt after paying a composition of 30 per cent. to his creditors, owing to giving a "collusive preference." In March or April, 1902, he settled with his creditors for 30 per cent. but gave the chief creditor promissory notes for the amount of a dishonoured cheque and paid him 30 per cent. of the balance of his claim: it is said that another set of creditors received 50 per cent. Later on Yeo Tian Lye sued the chief creditor for the return of his promissory notes; thereupon another Chinese creditor, who had paid Yeo for the 70 per cent. of his claim not yet paid. Both cases were settled upon Yeo Tian Lye paying the chief creditor. But a European creditor had also sued for the 70 per cent. and obtained judgment and brought Yeo Tian Lye into bankruptcy.

There were three prosecutions during the year. In the Bench Court there were two convictions and acquittal. In two cases there were appeals, in one case by the Attorney-General from the acquittal, and in another case by the bankrupt from a conviction, and in each case the judgment of the Bench Court was reversed. In the third case upon an application to review the decision of Magistrate, a sentence of simple imprisonment under Section 101 was altered to one of rigorous imprisonment.

At Penang there were three criminal prosecutions during the year, one of which was a continuation of that against the partners of shop "Ban Kest Hin" (vide last year's report). Both the partners were convicted of perjury and sentenced to two years' rigorous imprisonment each. This, it is believed, has had a most salutary effect on the question involved was one of deep interest, the defendants having denied their liability as partners on the ground that their names did not appear in the account books which were also missing. The prosecution alleged that the names in the books represented the accused and, happily, the identity was established beyond all doubt. It is to be hoped that this trick will not be repeated.

The liabilities in estates of debtors against whom receiving orders and administration orders under Sections 98 and 113 were made during the year, amounted to $1,293,192.42 in Singapore and $185,934.48 in Penang, according to the statements of affairs submitted by the debtors or made out from their books, or (where no statement of affairs would be made out) from the proofs lodged. The gross assets realized during the year on these estates amounted to $169,330.35 in Singapore and $33,196.84 in Penang, giving an average of 13.09 and 19.49 per cent. of the liabilities for the two Settlements respectively.

The sixty-two Chinese debtors comprised twenty Hokkians, thirteen Teochews, four Cantonese, one Khoh, one Hailam, twenty-two Straits born and one Dutch born. The six Indians were four Mahomedan Madrasese, one Mahomedan from Ceylon and one Chitty from Madras. Eight Europeans were three British, three German, one Austrian Jew and one Pole. One of the Amias was Straits-born.

The proportion of trade bankruptcies to the total number of bankruptcies was 65.5 per cent. as against 67 per cent. for 1903 and 74 per cent. for 1902. Of the non-trader bankrupts, no less than 14 were clerks or men in similar positions (eleven Straits-born and one European); three were women (two Straits-born and one European); two were Theatre or Opera proprietors or managers (Straits-born); two were Land speculators (Straits-born—liabilities $5,664 and $16,253.06 estimated); and the remainder consisted of a Solicitor ($33,579.78), an Engineer, a Surveyor ($8,000.76) and a timber-cutter. In 19 of these cases the debtors filed their own petitions. The friends of one debtor paid off his debts ($28,115.42) outside.

It is a new thing to find gambler-shops brought into bankruptcy. Their assets consist solely of the debts due from plantations (for labour or other) for advances made, and these debts are mostly mortgaged to other parties before bankruptcy. Many of these firms are old-established partnership businesses, which have passed down from father to son, often without the grant of letters of administration. The fall in the price of gutta was at the bottom of two failures and the slump in land brought many into bankruptcy. Business was bad throughout the year and money tight.

In fifteen cases the debtors, or all but sleeping-partners, absconded or were not to be found; in six cases no books of accounts came to hand. The Official Assignee again in many cases consented to receive books brought by creditors before the making of the receiving orders. Where the books disappear with the debtor, little can be done; where the debtors disappear but the books remain, more work is thrown upon the Bankruptcy Office.

Very few of the bankrupts deserve sympathy, whether traders or non-traders. The bankrupts of the latter class mostly continued to borrow on rigorous terms long after the time when they should have filed their own petitions. The failure of these traders who did not abscond, were almost all either distinctly fraudulent or characterized by trading with knowledge of insolvency.

The need of the registration of partnerships was fully discussed in my report for last year. A bill is being drafted, and if the mercantile community shows that it is in favour of registration it may be hoped that an Ordinance will be passed. A few of the old European firms consider that they will not be benefited by such a measure; but in what way will they be harmed? Again it has been suggested that if partners have to register, rich Chinamen will cease to invest their capital in trade; but there is more than one way of having money in a firm and getting a share of the profits without becoming a partner, and a Chinaman is the last person to be deterred from investing money in a concern that he expects to pay. Registration would show that such men were not partners; at present the firm gets credit on the strength of reports that such a man has money in the firm.

THE FLAG IN BUSINESS.

The attempt to use the trade of the Philippines as an indirect subsidy for the same American merchant marine is not working as its promoters have hoped. The companies operating American steamers on the inter-island routes complain that foreign lines are poaching on their preserves by cutting rates between the principal island ports and Hongkong. Observe malevolent energy of the demon of free trade. The foreign ships could not carry freight between the islands' ports and Manila—that is a matter that can be regulated by an all-wise Congress. But they cannot be prevented from taking it to Hongkong, and so the net result of our attempt to monopolize the trade for our ships is that we not only fail to get it for our ships, but we give it to a foreign port at the expense of our own. The merchants of the Philippines have another grievance on a similar subject. They say that, owing to the anxiety of our postal authorities to confine the carriage of the mails to American vessels, letters sent from San Francisco on July 21st reached Manila ten days after a consignment dispatched from Vancouver on the 23rd. For this delay of nearly two weeks the Second Assistant Postmaster-General consents the business men of Manila by telling them that "the Post Office Department is controlled to some extent by a spirit of patriotism." "If," he remarks, "the good folks in the Philippines who are complaining would stir up their patriotism a little bit, I think they would appreciate the position of the Post-Office Department and be satisfied." The old flag and an appropriation for the Pacific Manila Steamship Company are better than prompt mail deliveries.—Collier's Weekly.

REST FOR THE SLEEPLESS.

There can be no more insupportable burden than that of sleeplessness. There can be no surer relief than is found in Hall's Coca Wine. Here we have an immediate value because it soothes the nerves, stimulates the mind into a happier and more comfortable mood, and assists the will in brushing aside useless care. It has the wholesome effect of permanently banishing depression and so toning up the nervous system that invigorating rest will once more be the natural consequence of daily fatigue. Hall's Coca Wine proves indeed an ideal restorative, and is recognised as such by the medical profession. It is pleasant to take; does not become a permanent necessity, and is a healthful substitute for the dangerous narcotics that hold so many insomnia victims in degrading bondage. The disease is conquered by purely natural means; and the vitality of the general system is increased at the same time. 2304-10
